Jordan Baptist

"Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake." Psalm 115:1

Everyone present enjoyed the sing Saturday night by the Spiritual Knights and the Community Singers.

For another pleasant evening, attend the program this Saturday (March 11) at 7:30 p.m. The Gospel Harmonettes are sponsoring a talent program featuring groups from Jordan and neighboring churches.

On Sunday, March 12, at 7:00 p.m. the Holiness Gospel Singers will be appearing in concert here. This program is sponsored by the Ladies Club and the public is invited to attend.

On the first Sunday in April (Easter) there will be a three way sermon here. The preachers will be Rev. J. W. Paige, Rev. W. R. Jones, and our own Rev. C. L. Elliott. There will also be a guest choir. Plan now to attend.

On the 2nd Sunday in April (April 9) the Amateur Spiritual Singers will be singing here in concert. This program is at 7:-30 p.m.

All members of the Junior Choir and Youth Club are reminded of the joint meeting Thursday, March 9, at 6:00 p.m. We urge everyone to attend because this is a very important meeting.

The Senior Choir will practice Thursday, March 9, at 7:30 p.m.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

The monthly meeting of the French Club was held on Thursday in Room 4. The meeting was called to order by our president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by our Secretary, Pettis Bowling, chairman of the Foreign Language Week Committee, gave a detail report on what her committee had planned for Foreign Language Week, which is to be held in April.

After the meeting a competition of spelling between the sophomores, juniors, and seniors were held. The two sophomores were Jane Conner and Marie Booker; juniors were Brenda Watkins and Natha n Snell, seniors were Gertrude Walker and Pettis Bowling. There was a tie between the Seniors and sophomores but it was broken with the sophomores winning.

DEATHS

DAVID W. McCRAW

[illegible] Walton McCraw, 18, of [illegible] Appomattox, died Sunday, [illegible] result of injuries sustained [illegible] auto accident.

[illegible] in Farmville, he was a [illegible] of Emmett L. McCraw and [illegible] Estaline Anderson McCraw of Appomattox. He was a member of Memorial Methodist [illegible] and a student at Central Virginia Community College.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Mary [illegible] McCraw and Anne McCraw of Appomattox; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] S. Anderson of Amherst; [illegible] and paternal grandmother, Mrs. Emma M. McCraw of Richmond.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Memorial Methodist Church by the Rev. Alfred Eastman. Burial took place in Liberty Cemetery. Robinson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The pallbearers were Doug [illegible], Steve Lawson, Plicky [illegible]illiams, Steve Wilson, Dicky [illegible]awson, Chip Wilson, Mark [illegible]esterly and Lee Conner.

T. J. DAVIS

T. J. Davis, 62, of Rt. 2, Concord, died late Saturday afternoon in Veterans Hospital in [illegible].

Born in Slocomb, Ala., he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Davis. He was a Brotherhood minister of Calvary Baptist Church, a World War II veteran and a member of the Disabled Veterans Association.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elsie Hoback Davis; four daughters, Mrs. Audrey Quick [illegible] Mrs. Myrtice Strickland of [illegible], Ala., Mrs. Katrine [illegible] of Graceville, Fla., Mrs. Charlene Walker, of [illegible]; three sons, Pat Davis, [illegible]arren Davis and Bedford Davis of Concord; a sister, Mrs. [illegible] Holden of Dothan, and two brothers, Moody Davis of Columbus, Ga., and Jack Davis of [illegible], Ala.

Diamond Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

[illegible] LEAVES OLD HOME [illegible] BUSINESS, TOO

[illegible]am E. Williams, III, of [illegible] (Bedford County) has [illegible] way to save a family [illegible]and and "stay in business."

[illegible] Williams, who is related [illegible] Francis Tylers of Appo[illegible] is renovating "Locust [illegible] an old colonial brick [illegible] in the Sedalia area. Mr. [illegible]illiams bought Locust Hill on [illegible] Year's Day, 1967 and began restoration two years later.

[illegible] is a descendant through [illegible] maternal grandmother of the man who built Locust Hill, Mr. [illegible] Thomas Logwood. He became interested in colonial architecture while studying at the [illegible]ty of Virginia. After [illegible] he taught school for [illegible] years but thought that [illegible]e should do something [illegible]out Hill."

[illegible] now combines a pallet [illegible] business, employing [illegible] men in an old barn on the [illegible], with restoration efforts. [illegible] estimated that he has put [illegible] workers work into the house [illegible] at least another 1,000 to [illegible].
